Potatoes are getting scarce in this section and the sum realized by most of our farmers was not sufficient to desire more of the prosperity of Rooseveltism.
The action of the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday on the fence for this precinct was very pleasing to many of our people but not satisfactory to many others.
The fall crop of round potatoes of Mr. C. L. McLean, one of our prosperous farmers, was a fine one—30 barrels to barrel planted. Some of the hills contained 4 lbs. of salable potatoes.

Democratic Rally at Accomac C. H.
Come to Accomac C. H. next Monday, court day, and hear the issues of the campaign discussed by Hon. L.
C. Garnett, Democratic elector, and Hon. J. Boyd Sears, member of the State Senate.
Both of them are young men of ability, thoroughly conversant with the political affairs of the day and will present the issues of the campaign in a way that will be entertaining and instructive to all in attendance.
Turn out Democrats, and hear what they have to say to you. They will convince you, if in doubt as to your duty, that you should be at the polls next Tuesday and vote the Democratic ticket.
Anti-Saloon League Meeting.
Officers and members of County and District Committees of the Anti-Saloon League of Accomac County are requested to meet at the court house on Monday, November 7th,

The N. Y. P. & N. R. R. Co. will sell round trip excursion tickets from Cape Charles and all intermediate points to Pocomoke City, Md., Thursday, November 10th, 1904, on account of the laying of the corner stone of the new M. E. Church by the Masons of that city, and visiting lodges of Masons from Virginia and Maryland.
This will be gala day for Pocomoke and Northampton an opportunity to visit this fair metropolis of the Eastern Shore, to spend a pleasant afternoon, to participate in the beautiful ceremonies, and last but not least—a good shopping afternoon among the large and popular stores. The merchants there are recognized for their thrift and industry and proud of all reputations fair treatment and honest values as well as having for your inspection the largest and best selected stocks to be found on the Shore.
The merchants of that charming little city need no introduction to the Commonwealth of Virginia, but in passing we would mention a few where you will always meet with kind and courteous attention and fair dealing.

Tax on Dogs.
At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Accomac held on the 1st day of November, A. D., 1904.
Ordered, that the Clerk of this Board have published Sections 1 and 2 of an Act of Assembly, approved February 12, 1903, amending and re-enacting an Act imposing a license tax on dogs for the protection of sheep and other stock in this State; which sections are in the following words and figures, to-wit: Section 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of Virginia, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the revenue in the counties of this State to take annually, at the time of listing the taxable property therein, a list of all dogs over three months old, showing whether male or female, and in the name of the owner or person in whose possession the same is found, upon the oath or affirmation of the owner or housekeeper or head of the family with whom, or on lot or premises occupied by him, any dog or dogs may be found, as to the number of dogs such person may own or have, or as may be on the lot or premises occupied by him, whether owned by him or not; and to list a note of it on his books for the next fiscal year, and the owner of said dog shall be charged with said tax in addition to any tax such list of dogs to the clerk's office of their respective counties at the time when they return their lists of taxable property and for neglect of similar duties under existing law, the commissioners shall be liable to a fine or forfeiture of fifty cents for every wilful or negligent failure to list any dog.
The fee of the commissioner of the revenue shall be five cents for each dog listed by him, to be paid out of the funds derived from the license tax of supervisors.
Section 2. That in every case where the owner of the dog fails to pay, by the first day of July next succeeding the return of said lists, the license tax provided for in the duty of the commissioner, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the district in which said dog is found to serve a writ of distress upon the owner of the dog, to the effect that he shall receive a fee of fifty cents out of the funds hereinafter provided, and to that end the said sheriff shall be authorized to seize and appraise the dog, and to sell the same at public sale, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied to the payment of the fee of the sheriff, or deputy sheriff, for which he shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to said constable, sheriff, or deputy sheriff, if forthwith paid, and on his wilful or negligent failure to do so, when practicable, he shall pay a fine of five dollars for each dog he so fails to kill. The sheriff, or constable, or deputy sheriff, shall, on the expiration of the thirty days, account to the treasurer of his county for all taxes collected by him under this section.
Attest: John D. Grant, Clerk.

OUR NEW MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.
Fine Millinery
At reasonable prices is the demand of the hour, and this store is ready to satisfy the demand. Such a display of hats, plumes, georgian laces, ribbons, &c., was never before seen in this section of the country. Paris, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore have each contributed its choicest styles, all have been marshalled together by our millinery chief into a harmonious whole of unrivalled elegance. And the price is less than times enough to enable you to get one or two pair of gloves to wear with the new hat. Isn't that a saving worthy of your serious consideration? And then the convenience, you can get the NEW DRESS to match the hat or the hat to match the dress. Coat, Furs, in fact the whole outfit with the exception of shoes and a better saving to be made on each article.
Make us a visit and prove these things.
